history / Catholicism

In The Past as Pilgrimage, Catholic historians Shannon and Blum challenge the secular bias currently prevalent among professional historians, and argue for the compatibility of faith and reason in the study of the past. Inspired by the understanding of tradition developed in the work of philosopher Alasdair MacIntyre, the authors first critically examine both the internal contradictions and the enduring faith commitments of secular objectivity, then proceed to explore various traditions of Catholic historical thinking capable of synthesizing the technical advances of modern history with distinctly Catholic historical narratives. Their argument seeks to foster a conversation about the ways in which Catholic historians can integrate their faith traditions into their professional work while still remaining open to and engaged with the best of contemporary, non-Catholic thinking and writing about history.

Christopher Shannon is associate professor of history at Christendom College, and author of Conspicuous Criticism: Tradition, the Individual and Culture in Modern American Social Thought and A World Made Safe for Differences: Cold War Intellectuals and the Politics of Identity. Christopher O. Blum is professor of history and philosophy at the Augustine Institute. His scholarly articles have appeared in numerous journals, including The Aquinas Review, Faith & Reason, and Logos.

philanthropy / public policy

This volume of Conversations on Philanthropy commemorates the tenth anniversary of the journal with a tribute to Richard C. Cornuelle (1927–2011). Cornuelle's vision of the role of the “independent sector” in American society continues to inform and challenge scholars and practitioners in political economy, philanthropy, and social enterprise. Cornuelle championed the belief that the best free society is also a humane society where robust voluntary social cooperation throughout commerce and community serves to meet the needs and aspirations of people.

Contributors to this volume include: Robert F. Garnett Jr., Peter J. Boettke, Paola A. Suarez, William Schambra, John McClaughry, Heather Wood Ion, Roger A. Lohmann, David Ellerman, and Frederick Turner.

Lenore T. Ealy is executive director of The Philanthropic Enterprise. Since 2000, Ealy has served as program director for The Project for New Philanthropy Studies and editor of Conversations on Philanthropy, the project's annual journal. As principal of Thinkitecture, Inc., Ealy has worked to foster the emergence of innovative ideas, practices, and processes supporting nongovernmental solutions to social problems.

THE LAST CRUSADE ▶ Warren H. Carroll*Spain 1936*

The Last Crusade illustrates the phenomenon of the traditionalist as revisionist: the distortions of decades of Marxist historiography are overturned in Carroll's narration of the bloody struggle to preserve Western civilization in the heart of twentieth-century Europe.

$15.00 / paper / 240 pp / Christendom Press / ISBN 9780931888670

1917: RED BANNERS, WHITE MANTLE ▶ Warren H. Carroll

This captivating account narrates, month by month, the events of 1917. The drama of the Great War and the Russian Revolution are juxtaposed with the spiritual dimension of the age: the diabolism of Rasputin, the Apparition of the Virgin at Fatima, the malignancy of Lenin, the saintly courage of Charles of Austria.

$12.00 / paper / 330 pp / Christendom Press / ISBN 9780931888052

THE GUILLOTINE AND THE CROSS ▶ Warren H. Carroll

The persistent myths of the French Revolution—that the destruction of the old order brought unrivaled freedom and happiness for Europe—are shattered in this rousing study of the political violence and social turmoil that struck France in the late eighteenth century. In the midst of the terrors that unfettered Enlightenment ideology unleashed on the West, Christian hope arose anew to bring true light to one of history's darkest hours.

$12.00 / paper / 203 pp / Christendom Press / ISBN 9780931888458

ISABEL OF SPAIN ▶ Warren H. Carroll*The Catholic Queen*

One of the most powerful and compelling figures of all history, Isabel of Spain was a force with which to be reckoned and should rightfully eclipse the better-known Elizabeth of England, both as a woman and as a national leader. Carroll's biography is extensively annotated and eminently readable.

$20.00 / paper / 393 pp / Christendom Press / ISBN 9780931888434

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE*AND THE CONQUEST OF DARKNESS ▶ Warren H. Carroll

Standard histories on the Age of Colonization tell a sad story of the ills inflicted on indigenous peoples by exploitative Western powers. This book offers a realistic corrective. The Spanish conquest of the New World is shown vividly—in its fervor and exuberance, but most importantly with attention to its central evangelical and civilizing impulse, which made the Americas a central part of Christendom.

A HISTORY OF CHRISTENDOM

volumes 1–6

Warren H. Carroll and Anne Carroll

Christendom Press

This series is the only in-print, comprehensive narration of Western history written from an orthodox Catholic perspective. How would a historical narrative read if the author began with the first principles that truth exists and the Incarnation happened? This series is essential reading for those who consider the West worth defending.

MISIÓN GUADALUPE

L. Brent Bozell and Eduardo Miles-Campos

A guide for prayer and a meditation on the mystical truths about God and man and the social and political ramifications of the Incarnation. The authors suggest a concrete plan for advancing works of mercy to relieve the suffering of the poor, to uplift the spiritually malnourished, and to form a more vibrant Christian community in the midst of a secular world. The text is presented in both English and Spanish.

MUSTARD SEEDS

➤ L. Brent Bozell

A Conservative Becomes a Catholic

The journal of a remarkable spiritual odyssey. By the mid-1960s, Brent Bozell had contributed as much as any individual to the conservative movement's capture of the Republican Party. But long before that movement's apogee in the 1980s, Bozell had moved on, discovering that his Catholic faith demanded more than conservatism could accommodate.

ORDINARY AND EXTRAORDINARY MEANS OF CONSERVING LIFE ▶ Daniel A. Cronin

This survey of moral theology on the topic of ordinary and extraordinary means remains the standard reference work on a critically important distinction for end-of-life decision-making. Cronin examines major authors from the Catholic historical tradition, showing how the difference between “ordinary” and “extraordinary” has developed with the progress of medical science.

$27.95 / paper / 280 pp / NCBC / ISBN 9780935372557

INTEGRATING PATRISTIC AND MODERN EXEGESIS OF SCRIPTURE ▶ Walter M. Werbylo, c.s.b

Theory and an Application to John 7:37–39

Werbylo brings out the multiple layers of meaning in John 7:37–39 (“If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink”) by integrating the patristic exegesis of these three verses with the modern exegesis. His patient, wise investigation shows what the patristic and modern methods look like in practice.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP IN THE JUDEO-CHRISTIAN TRADITION • Staff of the Acton Institute

A fair and honest debate about religious responses to environmental issues should always distinguish theological principles from prudential judgments. The Cornwall Declaration and accompanying essays in this volume were written to do just that. They seek to articulate the broad Judeo-Christian theological principles concerning the environment, and to distinguish those principles from contrary ideas popular in the environmental movement.

LIBERTY AND LEARNING ▶ Larry P. Arnn
The Evolution of American Education

Arnn traces the history of education from the founding of the U.S. Office of Education (based on the Prussian system) in 1869 to the Higher Education Act of 1965 and its subsequent reauthorizations, to contemporary legislation. He connects these changes to fundamental shifts in our understanding of what education is, of the purpose and ends of government, and of what it means to be human.

$19.95 / cloth / 117 pp / Hillsdale College Press / ISBN 9780916308001

THE NEIGHBOR’S KID ▶ Philip Brand

A Cross-Country Journey in Search of What Education Means to Americans

The Neighbor’s Kid tells the story of what Philip Brand discovered when he drove cross-country and visited ninety-eight schools in forty-nine states. Brand ultimately concludes that government policymakers cannot set standards of educational “achievement” because true education is intimately tied to the cultural and civic experiences of families and communities.

CLASSICAL EDUCATION ▶ Gene Edward Veith Jr. and Andrew Kern
The Movement Sweeping America

Contemporary education theories have failed during the twentieth century, among them modernism, postmodernism, and multiculturalism. The solution is not more spending or a new and innovative program, but classical education. This revised and updated edition includes new chapters on classical education in Catholic schools and in the homeschooling movement.

MOTHER BODIES, FATHER BODIES

How Parenthood Changes Us from the Inside Out

W. Bradford Wilcox and Kathleen A. Kovner Kline, M.D.

Do the words “mother” and “father” mean the same thing or different things? If there are differences, do those differences matter? In Mother Bodies, Father Bodies, social and natural scientists come together to offer new findings on the meaning of parenthood which push the boundaries on recent assumptions about gender roles and parenting.

THE ANONYMOUS US PROJECT

A Story-Collective on Third-Party Reproduction

Edited by Alana S. Newman

Anonymity in donor conception hides the truth; anonymity in storytelling helps reveal it. This book compiles interviews and essays from the Anonymous Us Project, which seeks to serve as a safety zone for real and honest opinions about reproductive technologies and family fragmentation. The project aims to share the experiences of voluntary and involuntary participants in these technologies, while preserving the dignity and privacy of the storytellers and their loved ones.

THE WAY TO WEALTH

Four Rules

Institute for American Values

Can the rules that worked for an America of small farms and town criers work for an America of sprawling suburbs and smartphones? Yes, conclude the researchers at the Institute for American Values, who put the rules that Benjamin Franklin described in his Way of Wealth (1758) to the twenty-first-century test. This book, which is the result of their investigation, contains four rules. They are short and simple, and they work. Make them your “way to wealth.”

THE MAGICIAN'S TWIN ▶ John West, ed.

C. S. Lewis on Science, Scientism, and Society

Lewis was a perceptive critic of the growing power of scientism, the misguided effort to apply science to areas outside its proper bounds. In these essays, contemporary writers probe his prophetic warnings about the dehumanizing impact of scientism on ethics, politics, faith, reason, and science itself. Contributors include Michael Aeschliman, Victor Reppert, and Jay Richards.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN ORIGINS ▶

Ann Gauger, Douglas Axe, and Casey Luskin

Evidence for a purely Darwinian account of human origins is supposed to be overwhelming. But is it? In this provocative book, three scientists challenge the claim that undirected natural selection is capable of building a human being, critically assess fossil and genetic evidence that human beings share a common ancestor with apes, and debunk recent claims that the human race could not have started from an original couple.

THE MYTH OF JUNK DNA ▶ Jonathan Wells

According to the modern version of Darwin’s theory, “junk DNA”—the non-protein-coding portion of DNA—is evidence for Darwinian evolution and proof against intelligent design (since an intelligent designer would presumably not have filled our genome with so much garbage). But recent genome evidence shows that much of our non-protein-coding DNA performs essential biological functions. The Myth of Junk DNA is written for a general audience and shows that “junk DNA” is not science, but myth.

MIRACLES AND PHYSICS ▶ Stanley L. Jaki

Two dangers confront the modern Christian regarding the apparent conflict between the role of miracles and the rigors of modern science. First, a naïveté that forces such shallow methods upon the scientific disciplines that the result is the evaporation of both reason and miracles. Second, the inherently irreligious spirit that empties the world of wonder out of homage to an outdated rationalism. Scientist and theologian Stanley Jaki makes a case for recognizing the needs of modern science and of establishing a proper understanding of the miraculous in history.

A DESPERATE MAN ▶ Claes G. Ryn

Could two people be more enviable than Richard and Helen Bittberg? They love each other, have two healthy children, and are financially comfortable. The culturally rich, cosmopolitan atmosphere of the capital of the most powerful nation in the world forms part of their privileged existence. But to Richard it seems that perverse, irresponsible forces are destroying the country he loves. He feels compelled to resist. But how? A Desperate Man is a political and psychological thriller that sneaks up on the reader and then only tightens its grip. Telling the story of the existential crises that its protagonists must face, the novel becomes a disquieting and thought-provoking commentary on the state of America and the Western world.
